

Faculty of Science
Bibi Pehrson
Executive administrator

Announced at
Stockholm University
September 27, 2005

STOCKHOLM UNIVERSITY

invites applications for a position as Assistant Professor ('forskarassistent')
in Bioinformatics at the Department of Biochemistry and Biophysics
(reg.no. SU 614-1898-05)

Deadline for applications: November 1, 2005

The position is focused on research and to some extent on teaching. The appointment is for a period of four years.

To qualify for employment as assistant professor ('forskarassistent') the applicant should have obtained a doctoral degree, completed by the application deadline at the latest. Applicants who have completed their doctoral degree no more than five years prior to the application deadline will be given priority, unless there are special reasons, such as sick leave, parental leave, a position of responsibility with the national defence or with a trade union or student union. A general requirement for qualification is demonstrated ability to interact and collaborate with others and the competence and suitability otherwise needed to carry out the tasks in a satisfactory manner.

In the hiring process, special weight will be given to scientific expertise. Personal experience from developing algorithms and bioinformatic methods for sequence analysis, genomics, proteomics or systems biology is a merit.

Additional information can be obtained from professor Erik Sonnhammer, phone +46 8 5537 8567 (erik.sonnhammer@sbcsu.se) or professor Gunnar von Heijne, phone +46 8 16 2590 (gunnar@dbb.su.se). Practical information about the application procedure can be obtained from Ms Bibi Pehrson, phone +46 8 16 2292, e-mail: (bibi.pehrson@natkan.su.se). Trade union representatives: Bo Ekengren (SACO) and Lars-Åke Säll (ST/ATF) telephone +46 8 16 2000.

The application, in English, should contain a complete curriculum vitae, a summary of the applicant's scientific and teaching merits, administrative experience and experience in communicating science to society, a research proposal, PhD diploma, documents showing other degrees and former positions relevant for this position, a list of the applicant's publications and two sets of reprints (maximum 10 titles).

Applicants are recommended to consult the guidelines for Documentation of qualifications for employment as a teacher at Stockholm University, <http://www.su.se/nyanstallning>, or contact the executive administrator.

The application, quoting reg. no. SU 614-1898-05, should arrive no later than November 1, 2005. The application should be addressed to:

Stockholm University
Registrator/PA
SE-106 91 Stockholm
Sweden

E-mail address to the registry (Registrator): registrator@su.se, telephone number +46 8 16 3320, fax number +46 8 16 3866.

For further information:

Stockholm University: www.su.se

The Department of Biochemistry and Biophysics: <http://www.dbb.su.se>

Stockholm Bioinformatics Center: <http://www.sbc.su.se>

Rules of Employment for the Hiring of Teachers: see <http://www.su.se/nyanstallning>